Grantham secretaries are in the swim

A team of Medical Secretaries from Grantham and District Hospital are taking a dip this week to raise money for a local charity.

Victoria Smith, Rebecca Castell-Smith, Annette Le-Hair, Emma Hotchkins, Jane Graham and Karen Lepora have formed a team called Med Sec Mermaids to take part in the Grantham swim marathon.

The marathon is organised by Grantham Rotary Club to raise money for local charities and deserving causes.

Team captain of the Med Sec Mermaids, Victoria Smith, said she got roped into taking part in the annual event around seven years ago and has done it ever since.

“I think it’s nice to give to local charities where you can actually see the proceeds of what has been raised being put to use in and around Grantham. I also believe that this year they are going to be sending some of the money to the Haiti appeal,” she said.

“I have set up a web page where people can donate online through the rotary club and I hope that we can raise as much money as possible.”

The Med Sec Mermaids are one of eight teams of Grantham hospital staff taking part in the marathon. Other teams include doctors, physiotherapists and staff from the X-ray Department.
