

Workforce Race Equality Standard (WRES) Action Plan 2017-2018

Following the publication of the Trust's WRES report in September 2017 and following engagement with the new Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic (BAME) Staff Equality Network, the following key actions for improvement have been identified:

WRES Indicator	Aim of Action / Outcome	Actions and Milestones	Accountable Officer	Timeframe	Red / Amber / Green rating
2 Relative likelihood of staff being appointed from shortlisting across all posts	Aim to evidence improvement in BAME / white likelihood of appointment.	To review and implement regular audit the entire recruitment process to better understand what and where the issues are within the current system. 02.01.2018 – Steve McGowan confirmed work being undertaken	Steve McGowan, Deputy Director of HR & OD	December 2017 Revised to February 2018	AMBER
		To review the current recruitment training package for managers. 11.12.17 – TC emailed MR re structure for Recruitment Training 26.01.2018 – Recruitment training meeting scheduled for 30.01.2018	Gerald Dawson	December 2017 Revised to February 2018	AMBER
		Senior HR decision to implement automated TRAC process.	Steve McGowan, Deputy Director of HR & OD	January 2018	GREEN

		24.01.2018 – Business case approved and TRAC to be implemented on 23 rd April 2018	Tim Couchman, Equality Lead
3 Relative likelihood of staff entering the formal disciplinary process, as measured by entry into a formal disciplinary investigation	Aim to evidence improvement in BAME / white likelihood of entering formal disciplinary process.	To review and revise the Trust's Disciplinary Policy and Process, commencing with a thoroughgoing Equality Analysis of the policy. 7.12.17 – Steve McGowan confirmed this completed	Steve McGowan, Deputy Director of HR & OD	November 2017	GREEN
		To review the checks and balances contained within the policy and the feasibility of an added management filter before the formal disciplinary process is triggered (this will include benchmarking with other comparable organisations) 7.12.17 – Steve McGowan confirmed checks and balances in place. Not appropriate to include added managerial filter.	Steve McGowan, Deputy Director of HR & OD	January 2018	GREEN
		Undertake a detailed audit / root cause analysis of formal disciplinary cases in the last 12 months, to establish whether any trends or	Karen Taylor, Assistant Director of HR	January 2018

		patterns are identifiable & address these issues appropriately. 18.12.2016 – KT advised trust not in position to produce this data. New data collection to commence on 01.01.2018 26.01.2018 – KT advised that this work will not be undertaken during this financial year.			RED
		Develop and deliver awareness training for ER advisers (to include unconscious bias) 22.01.2018 – KT advised ER Team members already complete this training as part of their professional training and as such no further training is required.	Karen Taylor, Assistant Director of HR Tim Couchman, Equality Lead	January 2018	GREEN
4 Relative likelihood of staff accessing non-mandatory training and continuing	Aim to evidence improvement in BAME / white likelihood of accessing non-	Write to all staff informing them of the work around the WRES and the fact that the WRES data is informing us that BAME staff are not accessing non-mandatory training	Tim Couchman, Equality Lead	November 2017	GREEN

professional development (CPD)	mandatory training and CPD.	and CPD as we would expect and like to see. This communication will highlight what is available and how to access training. 13.12.2017 – TC emailed all managers and staff using direct email, HR managers' Newsletter, and all Comms / Social Media channels.  Workforce_Race_Equality_Standard_Trai
		Through the BAME Staff Equality Network engage with staff to ascertain whether there are examples and evidence of training requests not being supported. 04.12.2017 – TC emailed members of the BAME Staff Equality Network	Tim Couchman, Equality Lead	November 2017	GREEN

RED = action behind schedule AMBER = action on schedule GREEN = action completed