

Breast/chest Feeding Groups and Support in Lincolnshire

There is no need to book ahead you can just join any group on the day.

The groups are for expectant and new parents and mothers, whether breast/chest feeding is going well or you have some worries, the groups provide a relaxed friendly environment to chat, get help, support and advice from other breast/chest feeding parents.

A member of the health team is usually available to answer questions and can weigh your baby in a separate place or after the group, if there is a medical or feeding need.
