Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act (as amended) helps rehabilitated ex-offenders back into work by allowing them not to declare criminal convictions after the rehabilitation period set by the Court has elapsed and the convictions become 'spent'. During the rehabilitation period, convictions are referred to as 'unspent' convictions and must be declared to employers.

The NHS aims to promote equality of opportunity and is committed to treating all applicants for positions fairly and on merit regardless of race, gender, marital status, religion or belief, disability, sexual orientation and age. The NHS undertakes not to discriminate unfairly against applicants on the basis of a criminal conviction or other information declared.

If you are applying for a post involving access to persons in receipt of health services, your offer of employment may be subject to a satisfactory criminal record check. Failure to reveal information relating to any convictions could lead to withdrawal of an offer of volunteering.

Individuals applying for positions which involve 'regulated activity' are required to have an enhanced criminal record check and, where appropriate to the role, this check will also include any information which may be held against the barred lists for working with children and/or adults.

The full definition of 'regulated activity' is defined in the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006, as amended by the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012 which came into force on 10 September 2012.

Are you currently bound over, or do you have any unspent convictions issued by a Court or Court Martial in the UK or any other country?

Yes No

If yes, please supply details below;

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975

To protect certain vulnerable groups within society, there are a number of posts within the NHS that are exempt from the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (as amended). As the post you have applied for falls within this category, it will be exempt from the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act by virtue of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975.

Applicants for such posts are not entitled to withhold any information about convictions or other relevant criminal record information which for other purposes are 'spent' under the provisions of the Act. If you are successful with this application, any failure to disclose such information could result in dismissal or disciplinary action. Any information provided will be confidential and will be considered only in relation to posts to which the Order applies.

All individuals applying for positions which involve 'regulated activity' are required to have an enhanced criminal record check and, where appropriate to the role, this check will also include any information which may be held against the barred lists for working with children and/or adults.

The full definition of 'regulated activity' is defined in full under the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006 (as amended by the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012) which came into force on 10 September 2012.
